

Example Assessment of Data Availability
Urban Health Profile at the Municipality level

	available		If not available in the Municipality office, where would it be and how to obtain it.
	Yes	No
Demographic data: age, sex, religious, resident types, occupation, education of the city population
Life expectancy at birth
Healthy life-expectancy
Under five-mortality rate
Maternal Mortality Rate
Coverage of immunization
Prevalence of HIV/AIDS
Prevalence of obesity
Percentage of teenage pregnancy
Prevalence of raise blood pressure
Percentage of population living in sedentary life-style (physically inactive)
Numbers of road traffic injuries (road accident, drowning, etc.) within the past 5 years
Percentage of unemployment
Number of households/municipality has access to safe drinking water, improved water supply (pipe treated water)
Number of households/municipality having access to private toilet per household
Average level of PM 2.5 concentration in city latest year
Percentage or proportion of people living below poverty line (2 or 1.7 dollars per day)
Number of parks and recreational space in a city (or a park/capita)
Number of health facilities/clinics in city/municipality
Percentage of school age children (6-15 years) attending school			